Thursday night (19 March) saw The Concerto Group's annual dinner take place at the Natural History Museum in London. Guests enjoyed a five-course dinner with matching wines, put together by Create Food & Party Design, before being treated to a private viewing of The Wildlife Photographer of the Year exhibition.

Also on Thursday, Late Night London's meetings & events team hosted a venue preview at the newly revamped Balls Brother's Bury Court location on St Mary Axe in the City. Industry professionals from agencies including Capita Travel and Events, Chew, Grass Roots, Ten Group and Beyond Certainty gathered to take part in gin and whiskey master classes and enjoy a collection of tasters from the mixed drinks menu.

This morning (20 March), Team Spirit celebrated the solar eclipse by grabbing a view of it using a Welding mask from its creations department. The team also experimented with a pinhole camera.
