NEW SENIOR APPOINTMENTS FOR CONCERTO

The Concerto Group has announced the appointment of key seniors across its divisions.

New Group Central Sales and Venues Director Alex Dingwall brings with him a wealth of experience in the events industry, with a successful track record of business development and operations across the sports and corporate, catering and events industries.

Concerto-owned caterer Create has announced the appointment of new Sales Director Chris Miles. Chris brings fantastic experience in the events industry, most recently as Head of Sales at London Bridge venue Vinopolis.

Two seniors have also returned to Concerto. Carly Mitchell re-joins as Deputy Managing Director of Ultimate Experience and Nicci Gisby has re-joined as Group Business Development Director.

Concerto Group CEO Sam Gill said: “The management team has been reinvigorated by the arrival of key seniors including Alex Dingwall, Chris Miles, Carly Mitchell and Nicci Gisby (née Purnell). The four are all well respected members of the events industry, with a fantastic record of improving events businesses. We look forward to them leading the way in expanding Concerto’s venue portfolio at an exciting time of growth for the company.”
