

Conference & Incentive Travel
30.03.2016

C&IT partners with Landing Forty Two for A List 2016 launch

30 March 2016 by Jack Carter, Be the First to Comment

C&IT is partnering with Xcite venue Landing Forty Two, located atop the Leadenhall Building, for the exclusive launch of The A List 2016.

C&IT partners with Landing Forty Two for A List 2016 launch

Share this

Tweet

Like 0

+1 0

Share 13

RELATED
ARTICLES

The UK event industry's rising talent will gather at the Leadenhall Building's sky-high venue, Landing Forty Two, on Monday 25 April to celebrate the launch of this year's A List, celebrating 35 of the top agency players aged 35 or under.

Now in its eighth year, the annual C&IT A List sets out to recognise the rising talent among the top UK event agencies, with the likes of George P Johnson, Jack Morton Worldwide, The Appointment Group and Banks Sadler among those nominating future leaders.

The launch party for A List 2016 is part of C&IT's drive in 2016 to engage its audience through its largest portfolio of events to date, which includes the C&IT meetLA Forum Fam that took place last month (March) and the recently announced Event 360, which is taking place at Building Six at The O2 on Wednesday 25 May.

Last year's C&IT A List launch took place at The Savoy, London following a photoshoot of the 35 nominees at the luxury hotel.