

The Concerto Group appoints new CEO

1 March 2017 by Lizzie Cornik, Be the First to Comment

The Concerto Group has appointed Adam Elliott as CEO, as the company prepares for growth.

Share this

LATEST ARTICLES

ExCeL London's Lucy Merritt appointed to head of marketing

Jane Baker joins Timebased

CWT hires senior business development director

Team Spirit appoints marketing director

Absolute Corporate Events expands team after turnover rise

He will replace Sam Gill, who will continue to serve the business as a non-executive director. Elliott moves from The One Group EMEA, where he spent the last 18 months as COO of the hospitality and leisure specialist. He has also held senior leadership roles at Lindley Catering /Centerplate and Elixir UK.

See also:

Concerto Group makes four senior hires

Concerto Group hires agency account manager

Speaking about the appointment, group chairman, David Gilbertson, said: "We feel that Adam is richly qualified and equipped to fulfil that role and to take the group forward as we plan for the next phase of the company's growth. We are delighted that Sam will continue to deliver his expertise and experience to the group at board level."

TOPICS

citmagazine
#eventpros

Elliott added that he was looking for a new challenge. "Concerto has one of the best reputations in the industry and I look forward to building on the solid foundations already in place and taking the group on a journey of growth, both in new and exciting opportunities."

More:

Concerto Group appoints new non-executive chairman

The Social Network: Peter Kerwood Concerto Group

• For more breaking news and in-depth features, sign up to C&IT Magazine's daily Newstracker here

Before commenting please read our rules for commenting on articles.